Rice Market Report

Italy: Officially on the price lists the Indica paddy has increased => €550/mt. For the moment many rice mills refuse to pay €550/mt. Rumour has it that a big market player would have paid €550-560/mt with very long-term payments to put a spoke in the wheels of another rice mill

Still no sign of a price reduction in sight for the Italian market... We must hope that farmers will calm down a bit at the beginning of next year so that rice mills can finally work more continuously again.

It seems that the average yields for Carnaroli and Carnaroli type paddy are 53/kg and for Arborio 50.1/kg.

By-products have also experienced increases.
