Rice Market Report

Italy: For now, only Indica paddy is officially mentioned in the market price lists at a price of €500/mt.

Farmers are harvesting. So far about 25% Indica, 15% Carnaroli's Group, 20% Arborio's Group and 1% Round grain have been harvested. If we talk about the total harvest, they have probably harvested approx. 5%.

It rained yesterday and today, so two days of stoppage in the harvest. They should be able to resume this weekend. This situation does not help the price drop because the paddy arrives in small quantities.

As rice mills are not working much at the moment, by-products are quite difficult to find, and prices remain quite high.
