Rice Market Report

Italy: This week at the market the Indica paddy was sold at € 270/MT, the long A between €300-320/MT. Officially the price of long A is € 330/MT but since there is no need at the moment, rice mills still have in stock and there is no demand from customers, so some rice mills offered farmers between 300-320/MT saying they are doing them a favour to buy paddy they do not need. The milled price can easily depend on the price at which the rice mill paid paddy. The round paddy is sold and bought between rice mills.

Regarding the new crop, it will be slightly late, but it will not be as dramatic as initially thought a month ago. Part of the delay was made up by favourable weather conditions.

In principle, farmers should not be able to cut the very first rice before September 15th so it should be possible to see the first batches from September 20th. Round rice, which is not one of the first rice, should not be available until early October. Regarding quality, there are many "dirty" fields in the sense that are fields with a lot of marsh and grass because there are less herbicides and pesticides allowed in agriculture. Farmers would therefore have many less beautiful fields "clean" and more "dirty" fields as they say. Farmers can, however, once harvested paddy and brought home, clean it properly and get rid of these impurities. But seen from this angle, for now, the harvest does not look like a harvest of excellent quality. However it will be necessary to see what this will give once the first lots have been harvested to have a more precise idea of how the quality of this harvest will really be.
