Rice Market Report

Italy: Prices have increased for all varieties. Officially the paddy Indica remains at €500/mt but on Tuesday 8th November at the Vercelli market, the farmers refused to sell it on this price basis. So, it looks like they want more, but how much?

The best thing to do would be for the rice millers to remain quiet and not buy anything in the hope of stopping these price increases. But this is clearly easier said than done...

The general idea is that in any case there will be no price reduction before January/February.

Of course, the risotto rices type Arborio and Carnaroli, for this campaign, have no chance of seeing their prices go down. Given their low availability, people are turning to varieties such as Baldo/Cammeo, Roma/Barone and Sant'Andrea, resulting in an increase in prices for these varieties.
