Rice Market Report

Italy: Earlier this week it was rumoured that a major market player paid € 370 / mt for Indica paddy with payment in May. This price was formalized in Mortara's market listing today. This is not a surprise, for months no one has believed in a drop in the price of paddy Indica, there is 25% less indica compared to the previous season, which was not going to help in any way to have low prices. In addition, there is approx. 48% Indica paddy to be load, last year 61% remained at the same time. Finally, there are fewer imports from other origins where prices are also quite high. There are rumours circulating that a major player has already paid €380/mt for Indica paddy for July-August. Some say that with a price of €370-380, farmers will very quickly think of getting €400/mt ...

By-products are still in high demand and expensive, prices have increased further. The problem of the lack of availability of products remains.
