Rice Market Report

Italy: Paddy Centauro went down to €380-390/MT. A big market player would not have signed the same contract with a large industrial company as last year, which means less demand on the market for this rice.

Some rare and small batches of Selenio paddy were sold at €430/MT with short term payments. However, it should be noted that all farmers always ask €450/MT, they prefer to get more with slightly longer payments.

The Indica paddy was less sold this year compared to the same date last year. It seems that the farmers are ready to sell at the price of €300/MT with payment at 100 days (against 60 days previously).
