Rice Market Report

Italy: Market still quiet enough, no noticeable change, farmers are a little more open for sale, no price decrease but on the other hand, they accept for the same price a payment on longer terms for example at 75 days instead of 60 days..

About half of the framers have planted their seedlings, but with the rain and cold temperatures for the season, if these seedlings sprout and there is not enough sun and heat they could die. In this case farmers should replant. There is still no precise figure as to what is / will be planting.

The situation of the by-products hardly changes, they are always extremely difficult to find, the prices are stable.
