Rice Market Report

Italy: Last week's rumour of an increase in the price of Indica paddy was confirmed this morning at the Vercelli market, with the price officially rising from €500 to €550/mt.

Omega round paddy also saw an increase, reaching €500/mt today.

Arborio paddy had fallen last week and remains at €950/mt this week.

However, it is important to be careful between theory and reality; it is not always possible for rice mills to buy at the officially listed prices. Farmers often take advantage of this by asking €20/mt more, otherwise they won't sell.

Prices for by-products have remained fairly stable since the beginning of March, although there have been slight decreases in brewery broken.
