Rice Market Report

Italy: The market is very calm there is not much transaction. The rice mills are working so they have covered themselves before for contracts concluded probably until March and for the moment do not need to buy more quantity.

The Vercelli market has listed some of its paddy prices since last week with small decreases but added an asterisk saying that these prices were nominal. Small quantities can therefore be purchased, for example the Indica paddy has been listed at a price of €280/MT but only a few trucks have been sold at this price. A large market player always pays €290/MT for slightly larger quantities with long-term payments 120-150 days.
