

Rice Market Report

Italy: This week officially the paddy Indica is reported at €320/MT. It seems that farmers are no longer very inclined to sell paddy Sole at €350/MT, it should be rather €360-370/MT. There was a small decrease reported Tuesday at the market of Vercelli on the Arborio, but many rice millers think that it will not last. It would cost €420/MT to have a nice paddy Selenio and €400/TM for a less beautiful one. The Centauro has been proposed at €380/MT. The Baldo would not be offered for less than €400/MT although for the moment Turkey is not buying because it finds the prices too high.

Concern remains about the Indica paddy and the possible reintroduction of the import tax. The rice millers continue to think that farmers will take the opportunity to increase the price of paddy ... So it is very difficult to make forecasts

The by-products remain expensive and really very very difficult to find.
