

Rice Market Report

Italy: Due to rain, the farmers were unable to work in the fields last week. There was hail which destroyed 5% of the crop (approx. 70,000mt). On Monday depending on the region and on the farmers, some harvested everything that could, even immature rice, working in the fields till midnight and others slowly started to harvest a few fields.

Paddy round is sold at €300/mt with 60-day payment and €310/mt with 90-day payment. Officially it is the same for paddy India, only it's not that schematic: there are probably some farmers willing to sell small quantities at €300/mt but others not.

In addition, on Friday, rain is expected again, and some are therefore expecting possible increases.

The reality is that for the moment the rice mills buy small quantities because the farmers do not want to sell anything at these prices.
