Rice Market Report

Italy: No demand from customers so market always quiet. Small price reduction on the paddy: Carnaroli, type Carnaroli, Luna, Selenio. An increase to note on paddy Arborio and Indica.

It is rather the rice mills that buy paddy between them, especially the long A Luna/Ronaldo rice mills that would not be covered for sales already made for the Turkish market.

There is still no official estimation on actual hectares sown to rice nor more specifically how much of these hectares will be devoted to the different types of rice. It is therefore very difficult to make any new crop price assumptions, the campaign could be influenced by the weather, by the lack or by too much water, by temperatures more or less cold or hot and by many other factors.

The situation of the by-products hardly changes, they are always extremely difficult to find, the prices tend to rise.
